MORE RELIGIOUS IN AUSTRALIA THAN IN U. S., SAYS NOTED DIVINE

Rev. Geo. E. Burlingame of San Francisco Talks of Visit to Coolby — Declares People of Country Are in Mortal Terror of Japan, So Cling Close to England's Skirts.

The Rev. George E. Burlingame, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Francisco, and who has gained the distinction of building up one of the largest churches in the city out of a ruin left by the earthquake, arrived here from Australia yesterday evening and is staying at the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Burlingame will remain here for ten days and will leave on the Sierra, July 27.

The Rev. Mr. Burlingame has just been making a tour of Australia, New Zealand and the South Seas and made an extensive study of economic conditions in Australia during the time that he has been away. The Baptist minister has preached throughout Australia and made many observations.

"Residents of Sydney and Melbourne are far more religious than the people in our American cities," he declared. "They receive a thorough course of religious instruction in the schools and seem to be imbued with a deep religious feeling. All the denominations are well represented and there is a larger church-going population. The streetcars do not run on Sunday morning, but begin their schedules at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, which is done in order to give their employees part of the Day of Rest.

Cities Own Utilities.
"The gas, electric-light and street-car systems are owned and operated by the city and while in parts of Sydney, the tram service is as good as that found in America, there is much to be desired in the other cities. The chief deficiency is that the systems do not progress with the growth of the city but remain more or less stationary.

"The railroad systems have not attained the American perfection as yet, the worst feature being the absence of a standard gauge. In going from Melbourne to Sydney, which is about the same distance as is Chicago from New York, the traveler has to ride over three different gauges which of course necessitates a change of cars each time. The reason for this is that state ownership of railways is predominant and the gauges are different in each state. On account of the increase of freight traffic and the inconvenience caused by the necessity of transferring consignments each time, a standard gauge will doubtless have to be adopted but the time is yet far off.

Scarcity of Labor.
"The country is rapidly developing but not as swiftly as it might owing to the scarcity of labor. Australia wants people to aid in opening barren tracts of land which are fertile but require water. There is a lot of land that is not barren and is yet unopened owing to the lack of settlers.

"Immigrants are coming in rapidly, every so often an immigrant ship comes in from Great Britain with thousands of immigrants. White immigrants are wanted and for the purpose of increasing the tide of desirable immigration agencies are being established throughout the United States and Canada in an effort to get our people from us.

Australia Fears Japan.
"Orientals, Spanish and Russians are not sought after so much, the desire being to develop the country and yet to keep it Anglicized. Chinese and Japanese are not permitted to settle; there being a prohibition poll-tax of 100 pounds a head which keeps the coolies out and as the Orientals are not allowed to open establishments and engage in business, the more prosperous ones are kept away.

Armory Appropriation May Go Into Street Improvement
Joseph Gilman was made happy last night by the introduction of a resolution calling for the payment of $26,000 for laying a bitulithic pavement along Queen street.

SAY HAWAII IS SURE PARADISE
Surf Bathing Popular and the Limit of Millionaires to the Square Inch

Voluntary boosters for Hawaii are heard from all over the world. Note the following in the Vancouver Times-Advertiser of June 29:

MONTREAL, June 27.—Mr. W. D. McCallum of this city, having spent four years in Honolulu, has returned full of praise of the island. "The islands are indeed the 'Paradise of the Pacific,'" he said. "One could hardly conceive of a more beautiful place. The temperature rarely exceeds eighty-six degrees, and I never knew it to go below sixty-five degrees. The surf bathing is fine every month in the year, and the lowest temperature I ever found the water at was seventy-four degrees. As a result the people live an outdoor life on the large verandahs with which every house is surrounded."

"What is the population of the islands?"
"There are about 15,000 white people, 70,000 Japanese, 35,000 Chinese and 55,000 natives. Mexicans and other people. These are nearly all engaged in the production of sugar and the growth of tropical fruits. Last year the four large islands produced $95,000,000 of sugar, nearly $4,000,000 of pineapples, and $7,000,000 of bananas. A new industry, the production of copra from the cocoanut, is just in its infancy, but it will become a great one later."

Continuing Mr. McCallum said there were more millionaires in Honolulu than in any city in the United States. "The natives are very fond of music and sports and every evening they crowd their verandahs and sing and dance. They are very friendly at all times. In the language they have but twelve letters."

Speaking of the country, Mr. McCallum said that although the islands were set in the heart of the Pacific Ocean, the clearest fresh water could be obtained anywhere at a depth of 600 feet. In many places the wells were "gushers," spouting thirty feet into the air. This added to the already great attractions of the "Paradise of the Pacific," and as a result thousands of tourists were flocking there each season from the ends of the earth.

The statement of the Pioneer Building and Loan Association published in this issue is of interest to the prospective home builder.

Mr. J. F. Anderson of San Francisco will be the guest of the Honolulu Ad Club at its luncheon tomorrow noon. Mr. Anderson is the Pacific Coast agent for the famous Apollinaris water and has a wide acquaintance with advertising men as well as a thorough knowledge of advertising.

Deputy Sheriff Rose is looking for a heavy-set man with a black mustache who has been going about impersonating the deputy sheriff. The last time he has been heard from was yesterday afternoon when he carried on an "investigation" in a lodging house on Fort street near Beretania.

The Governor has notified the Hilo supervisors that he has appointed E. N. Holmes, Adam Lindsay and C. Castendyk to act as appraisers of the property on the makai side of Front street, Hilo, belonging to W. S. Terry and to the Salvation Army, which is needed for the widening of that thoroughfare.

Pending improvements costing about $50 the certificate of the Canton restaurant has been held up by the board of health. The improvements required under the sanitation laws. No prosecution will be started unless the proprietor continues business an unreasonable length of time without a license, when the treasurer will be notified and the place closed.

Following a conference with Colonel Jones, adjutant general of the National Guard and the architects Governor Frear has asked that plans be drawn in an effort to determine whether the proposed new armory can be built in the size desired on the $100,000 available, or whether, to obtain the requisite size, portions of the structure must remain unconstrued until another legislature appropriates an additional $23,000, the sum that has been asked of the city and county.

To celebrate the completion of its new headquarters, the Outrigger Club will give a dinner and dance on the grounds Saturday evening. The new lagoon completely surrounds the hawtree grove on the men's side of the Outrigger grounds, and provides a place where members may entertain the women of their families. Tea and refreshments will be served daily under the shade of the haw. Members who wish to attend the dinner and dance Saturday are requested to notify the Public Service Association, as admission will be by ticket only.

DICKEY TAKES OATH AND BECOMES JUDGE

It is now "Judge" Lyle A. Dickey. The well known attorney appeared before Chief Justice Robertson of the supreme court this morning and took the oath of office that qualifies him to sit as district judge on the island of Kauai.

He will leave Honolulu next Tuesday to take up active duty in his new office. He had planned to leave earlier but discovered that he must appear in supreme court Friday as counsel in a dispute before that judicial body, thus making necessary a delay in his departure.

FORMER POOLA OFFICIAL CHARGED WITH THEFT

David Kama, financial secretary and former treasurer of the Hui Kokua (Hawaiian) organization of longshoremen, was arrested yesterday afternoon on warrant sworn out by Tom Pedro, a member of the board of directors, who accuses Kama of embezzlement of $100.05 of the funds of the organization.

According to Pedro, Kama has been given several months to settle the account out of court, but when he showed no intention of so doing the formal charge was placed against him.
